CHANGING DEMOGRAPHICS

Total	4.9	4.9	4.4
Anticipated spendings	USD 4'403	USD 5'400	USD 6'621

Structural demand drivers

- For the first time in history, more than half of the world population is middle class thanks to rapid growth in emerging markets
- Baby boomers planned to take a total of 4-5 leisure trips in 2019, spending about $6,600 (20% to 50% more than Generation X or Millennials)
- Generation X and especially Millennials are traveling 5 times more than Boomers at their age back in the 1980's.

CAN WE
BREATHTAKING
AND UNIQUE
PLACES?

Why 300 Places?

- The 300 most visited places in the world by the global tourist are unique locations
- 85% of the global travelers go to the 300 places annually
- The number of the top tourist destinations is limited (only two new locations have been added to the 300 places in the last 25 years – Dubai and Abu Dhabi)
- The Fund invests in companies that provide tourism-related services in these 300 places worldwide

- SAVE SpA it owns 100% of Marco Polo Airport in Venice (8,8 Millions of passengers in 2015) and 80% of Treviso Airport (2,4 Millions of passengers in 2015. Low-cost oriented), both covering the Venice aerial Access
- In addition, it owns 40% of Verona and Brescia Airports and 27% of Charleroi Airport

Rational behind of the strategy

- Save Spa an Italian small cap company held the only two airports close to Venice.
- Venice a top 10 Global destination Worldwide.
- So summarizing, the perfect company, aggregating the supply, limited, and the demand, the Global Travelers which are growing and robust year by year.
- This company was in the Fund since 2014 (Fund launch), until we received a Bid in 2016, fully sold with a profit of 74.6%

Investment Universe & Portfolio Construction

In addition to distribution by destinations, we maintain a balanced mix between types of companies and subsectors: from travel planning to companies at destination, through operators by land, sea and air.

We invest in companies that are used during trip planning, such as Booking or Samsonite. In companies that serve the traveler such as Paris Airports, Dufry airport stores or the Japanese company Central Japan Railway, which operates the Shinkansen line between Tokyo and Osaka. In general cruise companies such as Carnival or specialized such as Lindblad Expeditions; on short and long-haul airlines; in motorhome companies, such as Trigano; at car rental companies, such as Sixt; in hotels of all types of range, in means of payment, such as Visa, etc.

Is not a consumer Fund, goods expenditure, it's a Global Tourism Fund, services expenditure.

Rational behind of the strategy

Fig. 3: US Private Consumption Expenditure: Goods

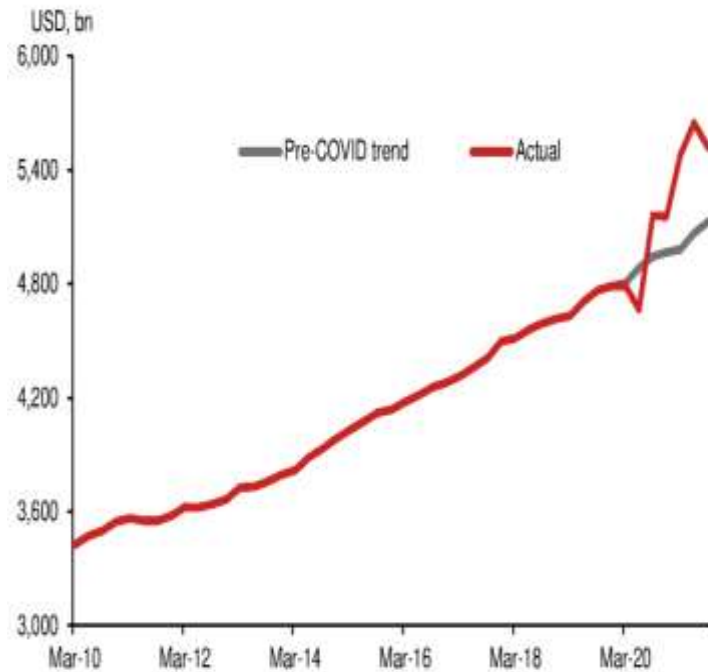

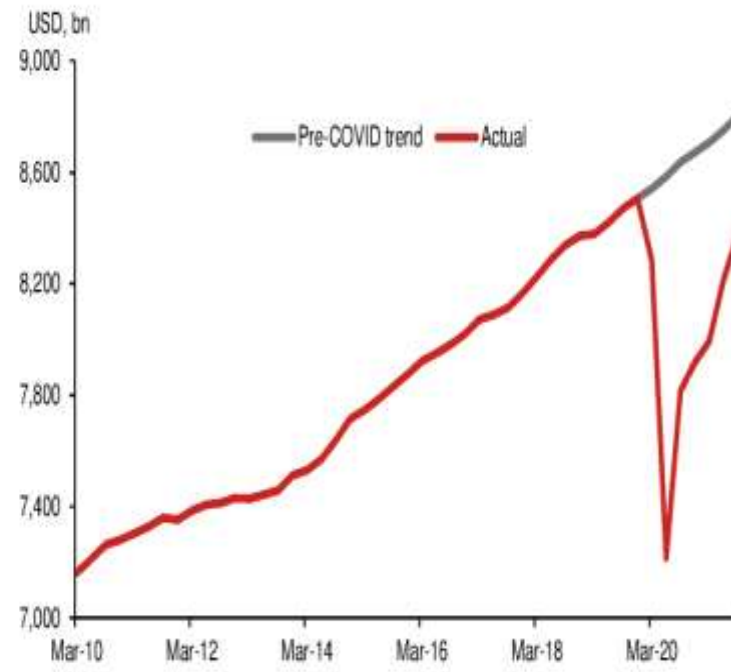

Fig. 4: US Private Consumption Expenditure: Services

- During Covid-19 the expenditure goes beyond the average to goods. But services drops much more than the average due the restrictions.
- Now, restrictions and lockdowns are in a clear way of disappearance and services, which is Tourism “per se”, are coming back with a higher volume than even in 2019.
- This high demand is higher than the rest of the sectors and industries, that’s why we expect that with a high inflation, Tourism is going to outperform the market.
- Be aware that a consumer strategy is related to goods, but not to services.

2019 Will be no longer the measure

- Inflation, wars, and energy haven't stopped the recovery, and later we will show how the levels prior to Covid-19 are no longer a measure for the tourism industry due to the arrival of new players (Saudi Arabia, India, ...) and a healthier, wealthier middle class pushing up more on Travel & Tourism than in 2019.

International Tourism still to full recover

- The information we have from the WTTC shows very clearly that international visitors are still below 20% on average, especially in APEC countries. So there is still a huge way to grow."
- "This combination of increasing supply, lowering inflation, and a global comeback to previous levels puts the T&T industry in an amazing moment."
- "The vast majority of them had an amazing record year in 2023 without international travelers close to the normal level. We still see that 2025 will be the total recovery year."

- Services are high intense on employment

Chinese International flights

Investment Outlook

- International flights by destination: We look at the top international flight destinations, from China, excluding Macau, Singapore and Taiwan. Trends for 2023:
- Least recovered destinations: In 2023, seat capacity to the US & Canada were -91% below pre-COVID levels. This has recovered through the year, with December 2023 ending at -79% below 2019 levels.
- Most recovered: United Kingdom with seats -27% below 2019 levels in 2023. Significant recovery through the year, with December 23 recovering to +17% vs 2019

- Recovery: The international capacity recovery began in September 2022. The first stage of the recovery was particularly rapid between Jan 23 – Jun 23 but has since slowed.
- H2 23 trends: International seat capacity recovered in December to 38% below 2019 levels vs 50% below in July.
- 2024 forecast capacity: airlines currently expect to raise seat capacity in 2024. This implies the post pandemic recovery will move to -32% vs 2019, compared to -58% in 2023. By month, Jan-Mar 2024 will see a strong increase in capacity, after which capacity deteriorates slightly in the summer. Nevertheless, this still implies 62% year on year growth in 2024.
- 2025 will be the year to reach international flights by Chinese. Until then the investments are having a huge discount plus the “G” beyond
